Lt. General Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

It is my pleasure to invite you to address the National Executive Committee of The American Legion in Indianapolis, Indiana, the evening of October 6 at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. It is estimated that 400 or 500 people will be in attendance.

The National Executive Committee is the governing body of The American Legion, composed of one principle and one alternate from each of our fifty-eight departments representing all of the states, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and six foreign countries. They are the only group improvised to rule on policy matters affecting our Organization outside of the National Convention.

The National Executive Committee has had an unbroken record of support for an effective intelligence service and I am sure you will find them a most interested audience. I am enclosing copy of two resolutions adopted at its Spring meeting in which you might be interested.

The American Legion will reimburse you for expenses and suitable accommodations will be made for you at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. As soon as the details of your schedule are available if you will give them to me we will have a member of our Distinguished Guest Committee meet you upon your arrival in Indianapolis.

We all look forward to the pleasure of having you with us in October.

Sincerely yours,

Wm F. Hauck

WILLIAM F. HAUCK
National Adjutant
